Mark Estates, Trusts, and Other Beneficial Interests (as defined in AL Code §26-1A-211, including but not limited to the following: (a) In this section, "estates, trusts, and other beneficial interests" means a trust, probate estate, guardianship, conservatorship, escrow, or custodianship or a fund from which the Principal is, may become, or claims to be, entitled to a share or payment. (b) with respect to estates, trusts, and other beneficial interests to: (1) accept, receive, receipt for, sell, assign, pledge, or exchange a share in or payment from the fund; (2) demand or obtain money or another thing of value to which the Principal is, may become, or claims to be, entitled by reason of the fund, by litigation or otherwise; (3) exercise for the benefit of the Principal a presently exercisable general power of appointment held by the Principal; (4) initiate, participate in, submit to alternative dispute resolution, settle, oppose, or propose or accept a compromise with respect to litigation to ascertain the meaning, validity, or effect of a deed, will, declaration of trust, or other instrument or transaction affecting the interest of the Principal; (5) initiate, participate in, submit to alternative dispute resolution, settle, oppose, or propose or accept a compromise with respect to litigation to remove, substitute, or surcharge a fiduciary; (6) conserve, invest, disburse, or use anything received for an authorized purpose; (7) transfer an interest of the Principal in real property, stocks and bonds, accounts with financial institutions or securities intermediaries, insurance, annuities, and other property to the trustee of a revocable trust created by the Principal as settlor; and (8) reject, renounce, disclaim, release, or consent to a reduction in or modification of a share in or payment from the fund.)

Mark Claims and Litigation (as defined in AL Code §26-1A-212, including but not limited to the following: (1) assert and maintain before a court or administrative agency a claim, claim for relief, cause of action, counterclaim, offset, recoupment, or defense, including an action to recover property or other thing of value, recover damages sustained by the Principal, eliminate or modify tax liability, or seek an injunction, specific performance, or other relief; (2) bring an action to determine adverse claims or intervene or otherwise participate in litigation; (3) seek an attachment, garnishment, order of arrest, or other preliminary, provisional, or intermediate relief and use an available procedure to effect or satisfy a judgment, order, or decree; (4) make or accept a tender, offer of judgment, or admission of facts, submit a controversy on an agreed statement of facts, consent to examination, and bind the Principal in litigation; (5) submit to alternative dispute resolution, settle, and propose or accept a compromise; (6) waive the issuance and service of process upon the Principal, accept service of process, appear for the Principal, designate persons upon which process directed to the Principal may be served, execute and file or deliver stipulations on the Principal's behalf, verify pleadings, seek appellate review, procure and give surety and indemnity bonds, contract and pay for the preparation and printing of records and briefs, receive, execute, and file or deliver a consent, waiver, release, confession of judgment, satisfaction of judgment, notice, agreement, or other instrument in connection with the prosecution, settlement, or defense of a claim or litigation; (7) act for the Principal with respect to bankruptcy or insolvency, whether voluntary or involuntary, concerning the Principal or some other person, or with respect to a reorganization, receivership, or application for the appointment of a receiver or trustee which affects an interest of the Principal in property or other thing of value; (8) pay a judgment, award, or order against the Principal or a settlement made in connection with a claim or litigation; and (9) receive money or other thing of value paid in settlement of or as proceeds of a claim or litigation.)

Mark Personal and Family Maintenance (as defined in AL Code §26-1A-213, including but not limited to the following: (1) perform the acts necessary to maintain the customary standard of living of the Principal, the Principal's spouse, and the following individuals, whether living when this Power of Attorney is executed or later born: (A) the Principal's children; (B) other individuals legally entitled to be supported by the Principal; and (C) the individuals whom the Principal has customarily supported or indicated the intent to support; (2) make periodic payments of child support and other family maintenance required by a court or governmental agency or an agreement to which the Principal is a party; (3) provide living quarters for the individuals described in paragraph (1) by: (A) purchase, lease, or other contract; or (B) paying the operating costs, including interest, amortization payments, repairs, improvements, and taxes, for premises owned by the Principal or occupied by those individuals; (4) provide normal domestic help, usual vacations and travel expenses, and funds for shelter, clothing, food, appropriate education, including postsecondary and vocational education, and other current living costs for the individuals described in paragraph (1); (5) pay expenses for necessary health care and custodial care on behalf of the individuals described in paragraph (1); (6) act as the Principal's personal representative pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, Sections 1171 through 1179 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1320d, as amended, and applicable regulations, in making decisions related to the past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care consented to by the Principal or anyone authorized under the law of this state to consent to health care on behalf of the Principal; (7) continue any provision made by the Principal for automobiles or other means of transportation, including registering, licensing, insuring, and replacing them, for the individuals described in paragraph (1); (8) maintain credit and debit accounts for the convenience of the individuals described in paragraph (1) and open new accounts; and (9) continue payments incidental to the membership or affiliation of the Principal in a religious institution, club, society, order, or other organization or to continue contributions to those organizations. (b) Authority with respect to personal and family maintenance is neither dependent upon, nor limited by, authority that an Agent may or may not have with respect to gifts under this chapter.)

(MAJ) Benefits from Governmental Programs or Civil or Military Service (as defined in AL Code §26-1A-214, including but not limited to the following: (a) In this section, "benefits from governmental programs or civil or military service" means any benefit, program, or assistance provided under a statute or regulation including, but not limited to, Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid. (b) general authority with respect to benefits from governmental programs or civil or military service authorizes the Agent to: (1) execute vouchers in the name of the Principal for allowances and reimbursements payable by the United States or a foreign government or by a state or subdivision of a state to the Principal, including allowances and reimbursements for transportation of the individuals described in Section 26-1A-213(a)(1), and for shipment of their household effects; (2) take possession and order the removal and shipment of property of the Principal from a post, warehouse, depot, dock, or other place of storage or safekeeping, either governmental or private, and execute and deliver a release, voucher, receipt, bill of lading, shipping ticket, certificate, or other instrument for that purpose; (3) enroll in, apply for, select, reject, change, amend, or discontinue, on the Principal's behalf, a benefit or program; (4) prepare, file, and maintain a claim of the Principal for a benefit or assistance, financial or otherwise, to which the Principal may be entitled under a statute or regulation; (5) initiate, participate in, submit to alternative dispute resolution, settle, oppose, or propose or accept a compromise with respect to litigation concerning any benefit or assistance the Principal may be entitled to receive under a statute or regulation; and (6) receive the financial proceeds of a claim described in paragraph (4) and conserve, invest, disburse, or use for a lawful purpose anything so received.)

(MAJ) Retirement Plans (as defined in AL Code §26-1A-215, including but not limited to the following: (a) In this section, "retirement plan" means a plan or account created by an employer, the Principal, or another individual to provide retirement benefits or deferred compensation of which the Principal is a participant, beneficiary, or owner, including a plan or account under the following sections of the Internal Revenue Code: (1) an individual retirement account under Internal Revenue Code Section 408, 26 U.S.C. Section 408, as amended; (2) a Roth individual retirement account under Internal Revenue Code Section 408A, 26 U.S.C. Section 408A, as amended; (3) a deemed individual retirement account under Internal Revenue Code Section 408(q), 26 U.S.C. Section 408(q), as amended; (4) an annuity or mutual fund custodial account under Internal Revenue Code Section 403(b), 26 U.S.C. Section 403(b), as amended; (5) a pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus, or other retirement plan qualified under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a), 26 U.S.C. Section 401(a), as amended; (6) a plan under Internal Revenue Code Section 457(b), 26 U.S.C. Section 457(b), as amended; and (7) a non-qualified deferred compensation plan under Internal Revenue Code Section 409A, 26 U.S.C. Section 409A, as amended. (b) Unless this Power of Attorney otherwise provides, language in this Power of Attorney granting general authority with respect to retirement plans authorizes the Agent to: (1) select the form and timing of payments under a retirement plan and withdraw benefits from a plan; (2) make a rollover, including a direct trustee-to-trustee rollover, of benefits from one retirement plan to another; (3) establish a retirement plan in the Principal's name; (4) make contributions to a retirement plan; (5) exercise investment powers available under a retirement plan; and (6) borrow from, sell assets to, or purchase assets from a retirement plan.)

(MAJ) Taxes (as defined in AL Code §26-1A-216, including but not limited to the following: (1) prepare, sign, and file federal, state, local, and foreign income, gift, payroll, property, Federal Insurance Contributions Act, and other tax returns, claims for refunds, requests for extension of time, petitions regarding tax matters, and any other tax-related documents, including receipts, offers, waivers, consents, including consents and agreements under Internal Revenue Code Section 2032A, 26 U.S.C. Section 2032A, as amended, closing agreements, and any Power of Attorney required by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority with respect to a tax year upon which the statute of limitations has not run and the following 25 tax years; (2) pay taxes due, collect refunds, post bonds, receive confidential information, and contest deficiencies determined by the Internal Revenue Service or other taxing authority; (3) exercise any election available to the Principal under federal, state, local, or foreign tax law; and (4) act for the Principal in all tax matters for all periods before the Internal Revenue Service, or other taxing authority.)

V. GRANT OF SPECIFIC AUTHORITY

My Agent MAY NOT do any of the following specific acts for me which could significantly reduce my property or change how my property is distributed at my death, UNLESS I have INITIALED the specific authority listed below in this section V:

Gifts (as defined in AL Code § 26-1A-217, including but not limited to the following: (a) In this section, a gift "for the benefit of" a person includes a gift to a trust, an account under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, and a tuition savings account or prepaid tuition plan as defined under Internal Revenue Code Section 529, 26 U.S.C. Section 529, as amended; (b) Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, this language in this Power of Attorney granting general authority with respect to gifts authorizes the Agent only to: (1) make outright to, or for the benefit of, a person including the Agent, a gift of any of the Principal's property, including by the exercise of a presently exercisable general power of appointment held by the Principal, in an amount per donee not to exceed the annual dollar limits of the federal gift tax exclusion under Internal Revenue Code Section 2503(b), 26 U.S.C. Section 2503(b), as amended, without regard to whether the federal gift tax exclusion applies to the gift, or if the Principal's spouse agrees to consent to a split gift pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 2513, 26 U.S.C. Section 2513, as amended, in an amount per donee not to exceed twice the annual federal gift tax exclusion limit; and (2) consent, pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 2513, 26 U.S.C. Section 2513, as amended, to the splitting of a gift made by the Principal's spouse in an amount per donee not to exceed the aggregate annual gift tax exclusions for both spouses. (c) An Agent may make a gift of the Principal's property only as the Agent determines is consistent with the Principal's objectives if actually known by the Agent and, if unknown, as the Agent determines is consistent with the Principal's best interest based on all relevant factors, including: (1) the value and nature of the Principal's property; (2) the Principal's foreseeable obligations and need for maintenance; (3) minimization of taxes, including income, estate, inheritance, generation skipping transfer, and gift taxes; (4) eligibility for a benefit, a program, or assistance under a statute or regulation; and (5) the Principal's personal history of making or joining in making gifts.

- Create, amend, revoke, or terminate an inter vivos trust
- Make a gift, subject to the limitations of the Alabama Uniform Power of Attorney Act § 26-1A-217 and any special instructions in this power of attorney
- Create or change rights of survivorship
- Create or change a beneficiary designation
- Authorize another person to exercise the authority granted under this power of attorney
- Waive the Principal's right to be a beneficiary of a joint and survivor annuity, including a survivor benefit under a retirement plan

( ) TERMINATION OF SPOUSE'S POWER. I am married to the person named as my Agent, a Successor Agent, or a Co-Agent. If a legal action is filed with a court to end our marriage, or for our legal separation, this Power of Attorney shall terminate the authority herein granted to my spouse, but shall not terminate or otherwise effect the validity of the authority under this Power of Attorney as to any remaining Agent, Successor Agent, or Co-Agent.

( ) NON-TERMINATION OF SPOUSE'S POWER. I am married to the person named as my Agent, a Successor Agent or a Co-Agent. If a legal action is filed with a court to end our marriage, or for our legal separation, this Power of Attorney will NOT terminate the authority herein granted to my spouse.

( ) NO COMPENSATION. No Agent serving hereunder shall be entitled to any compensation for doing so.

( ) COMPENSATION. Any Agent acting hereunder shall be entitled to compensation in the amount of $ _____.

( ) FUTURE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS POWER OF ATTORNEY: This Power of Attorney shall be effective upon my disability, incompetency or incapacity ("Effective Date"), it being my intent that the authority conferred herein upon my Agent shall be exercisable only upon my subsequent disability, incompetency or incapacity. For purposes of the powers and authority herein granted, I shall be presumed to be physically or mentally disabled or incompetent or incapacitated upon the determination of any presentation of a certificate or other writing executed by a judge having proper jurisdiction or a physician duly licensed to practice medicine in any state in the United States or in any other country stating that at such time I have become physically or mentally defective by reason of age, sickness, use of drugs, the excessive use of alcohol or for other causes that I am liable to dissipate my assets or lose the same, or to become the victim of designing persons. When the letter or other writing of such judge or physician relating to my physical or mental condition at such time, all as hereinabove set forth, shall be attached to this Power of Attorney, my Agent will then be authorized to represent to all third parties that the powers and authority granted as herein set forth have become fully effective, and that no person who may act in reliance upon such representation of my Agent herein shall incur any liability to me or my estate as a result of permitting my Agent to exercise any such power granted hereunder.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR AGENT

Agent's Duties

When you accept the authority granted under this Power of Attorney, a special legal relationship is created between you and the Principal. This relationship imposes upon you legal duties that continue until you resign or this Power of Attorney is terminated or revoked. You must:

1. do what you know the Principal reasonably expects you to do with the Principal's property or, if you do not know the Principal's expectations, act in the Principal's best interest;
2. act in good faith;
3. do nothing beyond the authority granted in this Power of Attorney; and
4. disclose your identity as an Agent whenever you act for the Principal by writing or printing the name of the Principal and signing your own name as "Agent" in the following manner:

(Principal's Name) by (Your Signature) as Agent

Unless the Special Instructions in this Power of Attorney state otherwise, you must also:

- (1) act loyally for the Principal's benefit;
2. avoid conflicts that would impair your ability to act in the Principal's best interest;
3. act with care, competence, and diligence;
4. keep a record of all receipts, disbursements, and transactions made on behalf of the Principal;
5. cooperate with any person that has authority to make health-care decisions for the Principal to do what you know the Principal reasonably expects or, if you do not know the Principal's expectations, to act in the Principal's best interest; and
6. attempt to preserve the Principal's estate plan if you know the plan and preserving the plan is consistent with the Principal's best interest.

Termination of Agent's Authority

You must stop acting on behalf of the Principal if you learn of any event that terminates this Power of Attorney or your authority under this Power of Attorney. Events that terminate this Power of Attorney or your authority to act under this Power of Attorney include:

1. death of the Principal;
2. the Principal's revocation of this Power of Attorney or your authority;
3. the occurrence of a termination event stated in this Power of Attorney;
4. the purpose of this Power of Attorney is fully accomplished; or
5. if you are married to the Principal, a legal action is filed with a court to end your marriage, or for your legal separation, unless the Special Instructions in this Power of Attorney state that such an action will not terminate your authority.

Liability of Agent

The meaning of the authority granted to you is defined in the Alabama Uniform Power of Attorney Act. If you violate the Alabama Uniform Power of Attorney Act or act outside the authority granted, you may be liable for any damages caused by your violation.

If there is anything about this document or your duties that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.
